

Kernel User Guide

This is the guide for the Kernel user. It will explain how to create scouts, assign inventory, review sales and create and manage storefront events.

To access the control login screen for the web application, visit this URL: <https://dashboard.cornhuskerpopcorn-colbyridge.com/>

1. In order to assign inventory to Scouts, you have to create their account. To do this, you have two options:
 - a. Scouts can create their own accounts and set their own information by visiting <https://cornhuskerpopcorn-colbyridge.com/scout>
 - b. Create scout accounts manually as a Kernel

Scouts

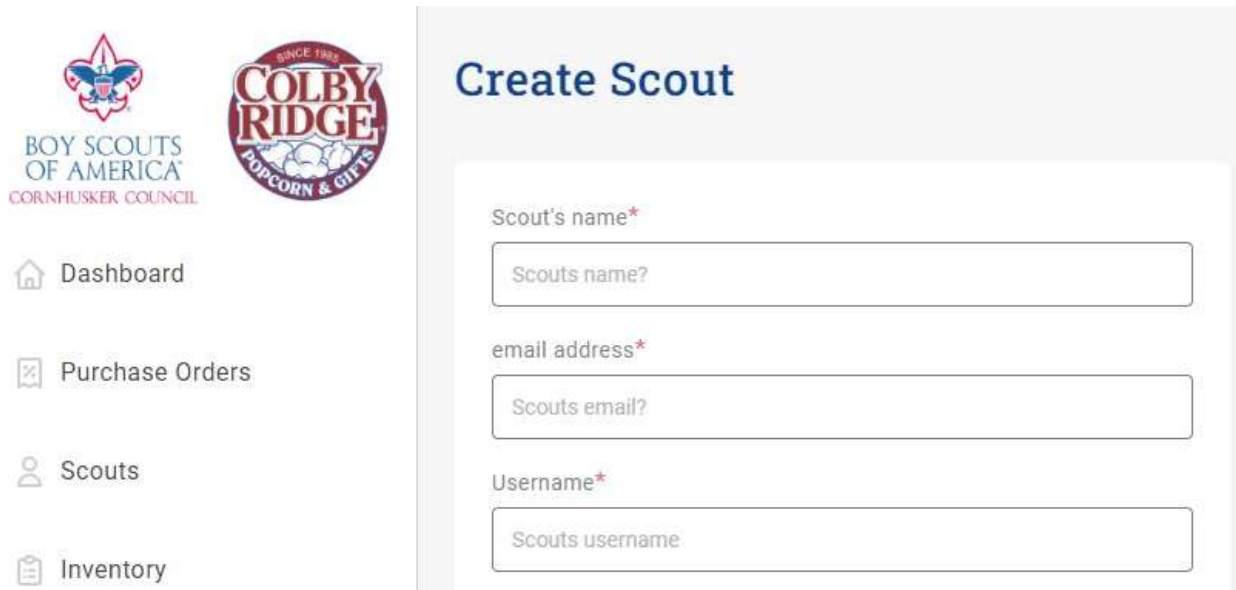

Scouts are the list of items that have been purchased.

Scout's name*

email address*

Username*

- iii. NOTE - the username field is used to generate the scout's personal web code. Which allows them to share a link to the public store that will be attributed to their sales. Each scout's code will be [https://corhuskerpopcorn-colbyridge.com/s/\[Username\]](https://corhuskerpopcorn-colbyridge.com/s/[Username])

- c. If a Scout has made cash sales, the app will record them. You can record receiving cash from a Scout (Scout must make a cash sale first)

The screenshot shows the 'Dashboard' page. On the left is a sidebar with navigation links: Dashboard, Purchase Orders, Scouts, Inventory, Storefronts, Sales, and Logout. The main content area has a 'Fall Sale' header and four summary cards: Total scouts (4), Average sales (Scout) (311), Number of orders (35), and Total sales ($1,245.00).
